

2016 TWAO Academic Exchange Grant

The Taiwan Academy of Ophthalmology (TWAO) has announced the 2016 Academic Exchange Grant. It is a $2000 USD grant (max. three recipients) aimed to sponsor foreign ophthalmologists who are planning to receive a short term training program in ophthalmology for at least one month in Taiwan.

It is a good opportunity for ophthalmologists who are interested to have a short term experience in Taiwan. Included are the Announcement Letter, Application Form, and the List of Hospitals Providing Training Programs for this grant. For more information, applicants can visit the Taiwan Academy of Ophthalmology website or contact directly at twao@mail.tw.

Please help to distribute this message to anyone who you believe may be eligible and interested. The applicants can be of ANY SUBSPECIALTIES, not limited to pediatric ophthalmology and strabismus.

The application deadline for 2016 grant is October 31, 2015.

Best regards,

Chong-Bin Tsai,

M.D.Secretary,

Taiwan Pediatric Ophthalmology and Strabismus Society (A subgroup of TWAO)

Chairman, International Academic Exchange Committee, TWAO
